

Sagebrush Quilt Guild

next meeting: April 10

President: Lorraine B. Happy Spring everyone! I think the season's have finally changed, there are hints of green on the ground, the birds are chirping in the morning and the sun is in the sky later. I hope this season of renewal and growth is also reflected in your quilting. Never be afraid to try new ideas or change things up a bit. Try a new pattern, a new way to set "old" blocks or take a class that challenges you. Quilting is a living breathing entity, always developing...remember those colors from 20 years ago? Now think of the colors today! Please read about the materials you need to bring for the demo Brenda has kindly agreed to put on. If you are currently on the executive please let me know if you plan to continue or not. If you are interested in a position please let me know. And finally, if you would like to chair and/or be on the Nomination Committee please let me know. We will try and set the committee at the next meeting. A reminder of the QTYW this SATURDAY from 9 am to 9 pm. I will be working on my Gypsy Wife Quilt all day in the hopes of making some progress on it. I look forward to seeing all of you on Monday!

Quilt Show: Julie. O: We were able to meet with Neil, the man we are renting stands from, at Cottonwoods the other day and he was able to help us rearrange our display plan to give us more display space. I, for one, am a happy camper!

We have finalized our poster and have our sponsors all noted on it. A copy will be sent off to all of you soon. We will be giving you a list of our sponsors and requesting that you post to face book on our behalf once we have our ad on the web page (probably this month). The more exposure we get the better. For interest sake these are our sponsors to date. We wish to extend a huge thank you to them all.

Anderson's Sewing center (a sewing machine), cash from Katja's, Maj Business Management, Warren Edwards Transport, No limits Fitness, All Slope Roofing, Hartwick and Company, T Piercey Transport, M. Papineau Enterprises and Kamloops Insurance.

Keep up the good work everyone and I will try to keep you posted.

Library News: Doffy B. - just a reminder that there will be a sale of the 'discontinued' library books at our next guild meeting on Monday, April 10th. If anyone has quilting/craft books or magazines that they would like to donate to the sale, please bring them along. Books will sell for $2.00 and magazines for $.25. All proceeds from this sale will go into the guild's general revenue account.

Program: Geri A.

How is your label project coming along? I think we should have a label show and tell toward the end of the season. Keep working on them - will be exciting to see all your creations.

Red and White projects can be brought in and shown at any time. I had said at one time only red but due to a project I am working on, some times you need to add red with a variety of other colours. So if I have not screwed up your projects use a variety of red and other colours but please keep in mind that it is for Canada's 150th birthday.
