November 28, 2016

Meeting called to order by President, Lorraine at 7:05 pm

Announcements

- A sewing basket was available on the front table to fill with sewing supplies for a 13 yr. old girl who is learning to sew her own clothes—Lynda M. is organizing this.

Financials – Monica

- Monica reported that expenses for the class this past week-end (Dianne & hall rental) have been paid.

Library Report – Doffy B.

- As our next meeting is our pot-luck, there will be no books available to take out, but you can still return books &/or magazines.

E-blast – Ann G

- Ann requested that if you have any questions about items in the e-blast, please contact the committee about them, as she just passes the Info' along as it is given to her.

Workshops – Sandy

- Sandy reported that we had a very successful & enjoyable “Gypsy Wife” class with Dianne over this past week-end.
- At the QTYW being held in February, Linda K will give a short demo/class in the morning. Attendees can do this if they wish or work on their own projects.
