

OUR 2016 New Year's Resolution is to:

...finish all the Quilt Projects from 2015
...that I should have done in 2014
...after I started them in 2013
...after planning them in 2012
...and buying the fabric for them in 2011
...while having the patterns for them since 2010

PRESIDENT'S WORDS OF WISDOM - Julie

Happy New Year all of you. I wish you all good health, good friends and great quilting in 2016. Our Christmas was very nice and we actually have had a little 'wind down time' since which was much appreciated.

I've gotten a little sewing done and anticipate doing quite a bit more before the first meeting. I've gone through some cupboards and finished a few projects so feel very righteous at the moment. I always end up with a new UFO after a community project day (the next one is January 13 by the way), and even though Loy is away the rest of us are full of ideas and enthusiasm so please come and join us. Thanks to all who have sent stuff to be put on the calendar. I think I am up to date, but please check and let me know if there are any errors. I'll see you all on the 11th, with bells on, to match the couple of unwanted pounds I added

Hope all of you had an Awesome Christmas and a Very Happy start to our New Year!! Now it's time for some quilting time in 2016!!

Linda's kaleidoscope quilt class is on Saturday, Feb 6 at TRU from 9am to 4pm, and the room is available to come about 8:20am and stay until 9pm. Please sign up as soon as possible, the cost is $30 and you will love the class!! Please bring a snack and your cup for coffee or tea, and I would love someone to bring lunch for Linda please.

Our next Quilt Til You Wilt (QTYW), is at the Japanese Centre on Vernon Avenue on Feb 20 from 9am to 9pm,, please bring a snack to share and we'll chat about a pot luck dinner or take out meal. Linda King and I will teach some hints for doing paper piecing, for the first hour or so, please think of coming to learn this very accurate form of piecing. The whole day is free, so come and have a fun day!!

Mark your calendar for our last QTYW, same place and time, on April 16, another free day!!

We are having an extra QTYW this year due to our enjoyment in October,, please come to the classes and QTYW, so that we can keep having these great days of quilting!
