From our leader, Doffy B

The days are growing shorter, but our weather lately has been spectacular. We drove to Vancouver on October 14th - it is always such a lovely drive in the fall when the sun is shining.

I hope everyone had a fun time at the QTYW last weekend. Thanks again to Joy for setting everything up for the group before she went away. I was hoping to get there after we returned from a memorial in Enderby; however, we got home too late to make the trip into town worthwhile.

Our next meeting, Monday, October 22nd, is the 2018-2019 budget night. Lynda has worked hard over the last month getting all of the executive requests in and has everything ready to present to us. Please remember not to bring guests to this meeting as budget meetings can be a bit onerous for those who don't get to vote.

See you next week,

Doffy B.

"Live well, laugh often, love much"

Workshop - Joy G

Congratulations to the 22 quilters who made it out to the October 13 Quilt Til U Wilt. A big Thank you to Julie O for hosting the day and to the quilters who spontaneously assisted in packing up the supplies for & with Julie. When I picked up the supplies, I chatted with George who will be going to Kelowna for follow up on angiogram and shunt surgery. He is very nervous as you may expect, so keep him in your thoughts and prayers.

All workshops open for registration and payment.

November 17 is our Fall workshop with Dianne Jansson at Thompson Rivers University from 9AM-4PM Bargain price $35. You will have the option of doing ONE of three projects: "Bouncing Balls on Checkerboard grid", "Perspective boarder around a pre-quilted or printed block" OR "The Tunnel to Scenic block". (Listed in order of difficulty) She will NOT be instructing on "the Wave Illusion". I will have pictures of the project choices and supply lists given out when you register. If the class is not filled by SQG members at the October 22 meeting, I will be opening it up to other guilds and guests.

November 26 Marnie Freeman will show sample for her Attic Windows Spring workshop to be held April 27

February 23, 2019 Winter Quilt 'til U Wilt at Japanese Cultural Centre

April 27, 2019 Attic Windows workshop with instruction by our very own Marnie Freeman (She has her own business Memory Quilts by Marnie) Bargain Price $35

April 28, 2019 Scorched with instruction on lemon juice scorching and sewn project with Jan Scruggs, a member of the Fibre Art Network. Bargain Price $35 plus kit fee $20

Read about her resume at <http://www.fibreartnetwork.com/gallery-artist-detail.php?memID=341&imageID=1139>

Block Lotto Anyone? – Julie O

The block for the first meeting in November is Jacob's ladder 2. I would like you to use white or white on white for the background, and the rest scrappy. If you want to see what this might look like see the one named "Dana's" on the second page. It would look good if you used medium to dark fabrics in any colors you happen to have.

Web Page calendar – Julie O

If anyone wishes to have anything posted to the website calendar, please send the info to me and I will be 'on it' in a flash! Okay maybe as soon as possible.

Community Projects – Joyce W & Cheryl D

Join us on Saturday Nov 10th at Kamloops Seniors' Village or on Wednesday Oct 14th at Katja's Quilt Shoppe working on quilts for the patients at the Cancer center at RIH.

We'll have kits available for you to stitch together at both of these events, as well as at each guild meeting.

Thank you to everyone who has donated fabric, made a quilt, sewn a kit, sewn on binding and supported this project.

Wednesday Morning Quilt in – Val B
