

Sagebrush Quilters Guild
Meeting Minutes
Nov 12, 2018

Meeting opened @ 7:09PM

Minutes from the last meeting taken by Judy T. were moved to be accepted as written in the e-blast by Julie O and 2nd by Joy G Motion passed.

41 Members present and 2 guests

Treasurer was excused and cheques were issued for bills that had been received.

- Info is here for those going to Gathering of the Guilds in April

Library had no news to report

Hospitality needs sign up for veggies or cheese and crackers for January 2019 meetings

Community Quilts had a donation for $50 and five Thank you cards from some who have received our quilts for the Cancer Clinic

- Next community quilt day is Wednesday Nov 14 @ Katja's from 9-4. Everyone welcome

Wednesday morning group is @ Sandy M's this week

Friday morning group is cancelled for 2 weeks, Nov 30th @ Marg J

Retreat report, all smiles but nothing to share (what happens at retreat, stays at retreat), except one white jacket was left behind, photo will be posted on web.

- The Retreat Committee is accepting names for spring retreat in March 2019

KSV next Dec 8th, and prepare to do a quilt show for KSV in March to show them what we do when using their facility.

The Workshop this weekend at TRU by Dianne J has 20 signed up. There are 3 options and she will demonstrate all.

Block Lotto Draw for October's block had 16 entries, winners were...Lynda Mac and Joyce W

- The November block was on display and will expect entries to be in by the first meeting in December
- This pattern will be on the e-blast, using black as the main colour with bright corners

Blocks for the Quilts of Valor were on display and Joy will receive any that people have made and send them in together to Quilts Canada

REMINDER: Fabricland Guild Open Shopping Night, TUESDAY, November 13th 6:30 pm to 8:30 PM

Coffee break @ 7:35 – 8:20 PM

Show and Share went until 8:41 PM, when the meeting ended