

Sagebrush Quilters Guild
Meeting Minutes
April 22, 2019

Meeting opened at 7:03 PM

E-blast minutes were moved by Jeri B and 2nd by Kim to be accepted as written. Passed 37 members present and 1 guest. April birthdays were acknowledged and the missed March birthdays.

No library news

Thanks to those who took over the duties of hospitality this meeting! We wish Kay a quick recovery and a safe and enjoyable trip.

The next Community Quilting date is May 8th at Katja's from 9:30-4:30 There are quilt kits available tonight, check with Cheryl or Joyce.

The workshop at TRU with Jan Scruggs will be this weekend, April 28th. Joy is taking names of those interested in taking any of the classes by Kathleen R. on machine quilting.

The Bucket Raffle for our 2nd meeting in May was explained by Julie O. Please go through your craft things at home to bring anything that you are not using anymore for others to enjoy.

The Fall craft items are coming in and the selection is great. Keep up the great work and keep on crafting.

Quilt In's

- Wednesday morning: at Sandy M
- Friday morning: at Marg's

KSV quilting day is May 11th from 9AM until close

Retreat is full and there is a waiting list

New Business: Marg and Kim have volunteered to be the Nominating committee for executive slate 2019/2020

Gathering of the Guild was a very informative and enjoyable time for all who attended.

Break for coffee at 7:35PM

Program was a trunk show by Dinah Mulvaney started at 8:00PM until 8:30PM

- It was a beautiful display of diversity in quilting and stitching.

Show and Tell followed and meeting ended at 8:35PM