Picnic Quilt

Pat M

- This is a perfect quilt to keep in the car for picnics.
- Pat started this quilt during a spring trip to Arizona over 7 years ago. She is on a mission to finish a quilt before she starts another one.
- The Size is 39 x 54 inches
- It is stuck in the ditch and has colourful watermelons on the back.
- Pieced and quilted by Pat

Pumpkin Patch Panel

Pat M

- Pat found this panel and matching fabric a few (many) years ago. She sewed the top during a winter trip to Arizona five plus years ago and she finally finished this month.
- The Size is 40 x 56 inches
- The quilt will go in the pile to be gifted later.
- Pieced and quilted by Pat

Poultry in Motion Panel

Pat M

- This panel & fabric was left over from a kit to make a different quilt that Katja had many years ago.
- Pat used the solid red from her stash
- The Size is 40 x 52 inches
- The quilt was gifted to a local fellow who goes above and beyond in our neighbourhood
- All the extra fabric was out of Pat's stash.
- Pieced and quilted by Pat

Locked Down Mug Rugs

Pat M

- While watching different YouTube videos on quilting, Pat came across this one that uses freezer paper and Elmer's School Glue as the applique technique.
- This mug rug was made by combining fussy cutting the pattern and blocks. It used up a few more scraps.
- The YouTube link is <https://youtu.be/hMmSoZqLwi0>
- The Size is 9.5 x 12 inches
- One is for Pat's daughter-in-law who is a tea drinker.
- Pieced and quilted by Pat

Bare Branches

Pat M

- Pat saw this pattern on-line at Annie's Quilting designed by Bev Getschel.
- She thought it might be fun to try and use up material from her stash instead of layer cakes.
- With so many blocks, you really need to focus getting the block layout right. Only had to unsew about 9 times.
- The Size is 68 x 85 inches
- Another quilt for the pile to be gifted at sometime in the future
- Pieced by Pat and soon to be quilted by Bernadine Libreiro of Sooke, BC

Day Care Quilt

Day Care Quilt

Julie O

- A simple front. The blue fabric is bumble bees and the backing is a fire truck on fleece that has been in Julie's stash for 'I don't know how many years'
- It was pieced and quilted by Julie
- Measures 40 x 50 inches

Day Care Quilt

Julie O

- This one has funky cats in the blue squares and simple piecing
- It was pieced and quilted by Julie
- Measures 40 x 50 inches

Day Care Quilt

Julie O

- The panel was donated by either Bev B or an anonymous donor and the rest was from Julie's stash.
- Bev B has given Julie a lot of kids fabric and she have really enjoyed using them.
- It was pieced and quilted by Julie
- Measures 40 x 50 inches

Blessings of Joy Mystery Quilt

Joy G

- Mystery sampler quilt pattern from pg 50-53 of Fat Quarter Quilts by M'Liss Rae Hawley
- Using leftover fabrics from "Feather your Nest Kit" especially to feature "blessings of Joy" border print and other leftover coordinating fabrics.
- Joy liked this pattern because it let's you Design /Layout of blocks. She added the 1" lime green sashing border and final outer 4" border of dark blue to the pattern and had enough leftover pieces to make a scrap binding. Backing is green flannel.
- Size is 65.5 x 74.5 inches
- Machine pieced by Joy G
- Lori Dewalt did the computerized quilting pattern "Joyful" edge to edge digital panto with Prickley Pear Glide thread

- It's the first jelly roll that Sandy bought and she made the quilt called Dot Dot Dash, from the book called the Big Book of Strip Quilts!
- It's 47 x 58 inches
- It will go to a cancer patient at the hospital!!!

Mexican Star Dance

Doreen F

(slide 1 of 3)

- Doreen made this quilt for my Granddaughter's upcoming wedding on July 3.
  - She made it larger than the pattern and made it into a Queen-sized quilt.
  - Her chosen colours for her wedding are mauve, therefore Doreen put plenty of purple color in this quilt.
  - Pieced by Doreen
  - Quilting was done by Sam Albert's Quilting Curve Studio (Grand Forks, BC).

Embroidery Sampler

Vicki G

- Vicki made this project with the 'One Stitch At A Time Embroidery Group'.
- The group learned a new stitch and variations each month and were challenged to put them together in a unique way.
- Vicki put this in an exhibit titled "A Touch of Orange" which was shown at the White Rock Library for the month of February 2021. It is done on hand-dyed linen and the green border is Dupioni silk.
- It is 16" x 24". Vicki loved doing the embroidery.

Hello Spring

Vicki G

- This is a hand appliqued quilt called “Hello Spring”.
- It was made for a boxed exhibit of the Fibre Art Network. The exhibit is available to guilds free of charge.
- There are over 80 pieces entered and the exhibit will be divided into two groups.
- Guilds may borrow one or both of the exhibits.
- Size is 8” x 8”

My Funky Fish

Vicki G

- 'My Funky Fish' are framed pieced that Vicki made last year when she dislocated her shoulder and a month later, cut the tendon in her thumb and was unable to do much stitching.
- These were simple fused and appliqued pieces that were machine blanket stitched.
- Vicki donated one to the Sotheby's auction at Sun Peaks. Another was given to a friend and the third she kept for herself.
- These were super easy and fun to do, pre-cut and prepared for fusing from Applique Elementz and each measures 13" x 13"
