Museum Update- Andrea for Paulette E

An important message from Paulette E:

Temporary exhibit at Kamloops Museum called "Common Threads". During November they have several feature exhibits and one of them will highlight quilts, a wool quilt owned by member Monette Powell and three of the RIH donation quilts as a tribute to our ongoing support in the community.

Saturday, November 30 will be a demonstration day. Paulette will need a few guild members to be cutting out a quilt, hand stitching or other hand work such as binding a quilt, hand applique, English paper piecing or adding stitchery embellishments to a project. Anything that doesn't require a sewing machine. We will need to bring our own equipment for sewing. Our slotted time is 11 am to 1 pm. I hope to also set up a portable quilting frame. If you can commit to this day and time with a project on the go, please contact me (Paulette) so I know who and what to expect. We will be in a room on an upper level with lots of windows facing Seymour Street.

The display will be on from November 1st to 30th.
