

Sagebrush Quilters Guild Minutes October 10, 2022

Minutes- Judy N. There was an omission in the last minutes. The minutes have been amended to reflect that the motion to approve the budget was voted upon and passed by majority vote. Moved to accept amended minutes by Julie O. Seconded by Monica W, motion passed.

Membership- Sandy M. 21 members in attendance

Sandy is ordering name tags. These are provided to new members at no cost, if existing members wish to order a new nametag, the cost is $15.00. Let Sandy know if you wish to order, specify magnet or pin back.

Program Committee- Reminder that Shopping night at Fabricland is October 18th at 6pm. Please wear your guild name tag.

Zoom Contract- It was brought to the president's (Sue O.) attention that if the yearly Zoom is renewed by October 15, we can save 30% off the yearly cost.

There was discussion about the pro's and con's of renewing the paid Zoom

A motion was made to renew the Zoom membership for another year with the intention to keep track of the number of members using the Zoom membership. Motion made by Doreen C, seconded by Leslie W. More discussion ensued, the treasurer Lynda M recommended that we do not renew and stick to the free account as this was not in the budget for this year.

Motion did not pass. The guild will use the free Zoom which has a limit of 40 minutes but has the option to sign in again to extend the time.

Community Quilts- Marg – Kits are available tonight; she will take completed quilts or flimsies as Cheryl is away on vacation. Sue read a thank you email that was sent to her.

Community Quilts Day at Katja's on Wednesday October 12 10 am to 4pm.

Show and Tell

Program Committee- Julie O.

Reminder that next meeting, October 24 will be the bucket raffle, arrive by 6:30 with your items so that they can be sorted and organized. The committee will need volunteers that night to help with set up, selling tickets, and distributing raffle winnings.

Also at next meeting will be the Block exchange and Block Lotto

Break time

Meeting adjourned at 8:10 pm.