

Sagebrush Quilters Guild Meeting minutes November 28, 2022

President Sue O- Call to order -7pm

Membership Sandy M- 33 members in attendance. Get to know your fellow members activity- Cheryl D, Maureen T, Bev B and Bev M.

Secretary Judy N- Motion to accept minutes of November 14, 2022, as emailed made by Julie O, seconded by Brenda E. motion carried.

Community quilts Cheryl D- Cheryl read several thank you cards. Andrea delivered 30 quilts to the hospital last week. Another 150 quilts are now residing at Andrea's home until they are needed at the hospital. Kits are available tonight, there will be no kits at the December meeting. The committee encourages everyone to relax and focus on Christmas.

Sue O shared a story about a friend who received a community quilt and how much that quilt means to her.

Quilt till you wilt Monica W- Saturday December 3 from 9 am to 9pm at the Japanese Cultural Centre.

Bring your own lunch and a wrapped snack to share if desired. Bring your own coffee mug as coffee and tea will be available.

Discussion about potluck dinner, group decided to forgo this and dinner at nearby restaurants will be decided on Saturday by those attending.

Note: there is no access to the rear entrance at the Japanese Cultural Centre, only front door and a few steps at the front. Help will be provided to bring items in from cars and up the steps if needed.

Bonnie Hunter Quiltville mystery- <https://quiltville.blogspot.com/p/chilhowie-mystery.html>

Monica reminded the group that this yearly mystery has just begun. Many members of the guild have participated in this mystery in the past.

President Sue O- There will be only one meeting in December on December 12.

Discussion about potluck dinner, majority of those attending were not interested in potluck. Suggestion was made to have coffee and tea; bring your own plates, cutlery and mug as disposable items will not be available.

Members are welcome to bring cookies or other goodies to share if desired. You are welcome to bring your own Christmas mug, placemat, or tablecloth to decorate your table and provide a festive touch for the evening.

As announced in the eblast, Kay Mori has passed away. At this time, we are unaware of any plans for a memorial for her, Cheryl asked that if anyone hears news of her memorial that she passes along this information to Cheryl.

Block Lotto- Julie O. There were 22 Carrie Nation blocks brought in tonight. Leslie W won the lotto.

December block is "Shooting Star" Pattern is attached.

These will be due at the next meeting on December 14.

Show and Tell

Break for visiting

Program presentation- Judy Nichols "You might be string quilter"

Judy showed how she makes her string quilts, examples of different kinds of blocks that can be made from strings, a few quilts she has made and a PowerPoint of string quilts. Lots of interest and many questions from the group.

Some string quilting resources

Bonnie Hunter- The Queen of String quilting

<https://quiltville.blogspot.com/2005/06/string-quilting-primer.html>

Jo's Country Junction

Jo does lots of string quilting and here she is showing all the 13 string quilts that she made from Bonnie Hunters book String Fling

<https://www.joscountryjunction.com/string-fling-conquered/>

Cynthia at "Quilting is more fun than housework" blog has done many string quilts too

<https://quiltingismorefunthanhousework.blogspot.com/search?q=string+quilts>

Meeting adjourned at 8:50 pm